The Senior Classes of the University of Mississippi
at University, Mississippi Present Volume XXXIX
of their Year Book

MISS

Foreword

The staff in presenting volume XXXIX of the Ole Miss to the student body feels nothing of regret, prays no forgiveness, asks no quarter. It does so with the full assurance of an obligation justly met and consoles its attempt with a somewhat selfish feeling that it represents the best that was in them. We have attempted to commemorate something of the priceless moments you have all known so well. To what extent we have succeeded you alone shall be the judges. If, then, in years to come, this book will aid in bringing back fond remembrances about Ole Miss, of the hard and yet happy days, then the staff shall have indeed fulfilled a happy obligation. » » » »

Dedication

To

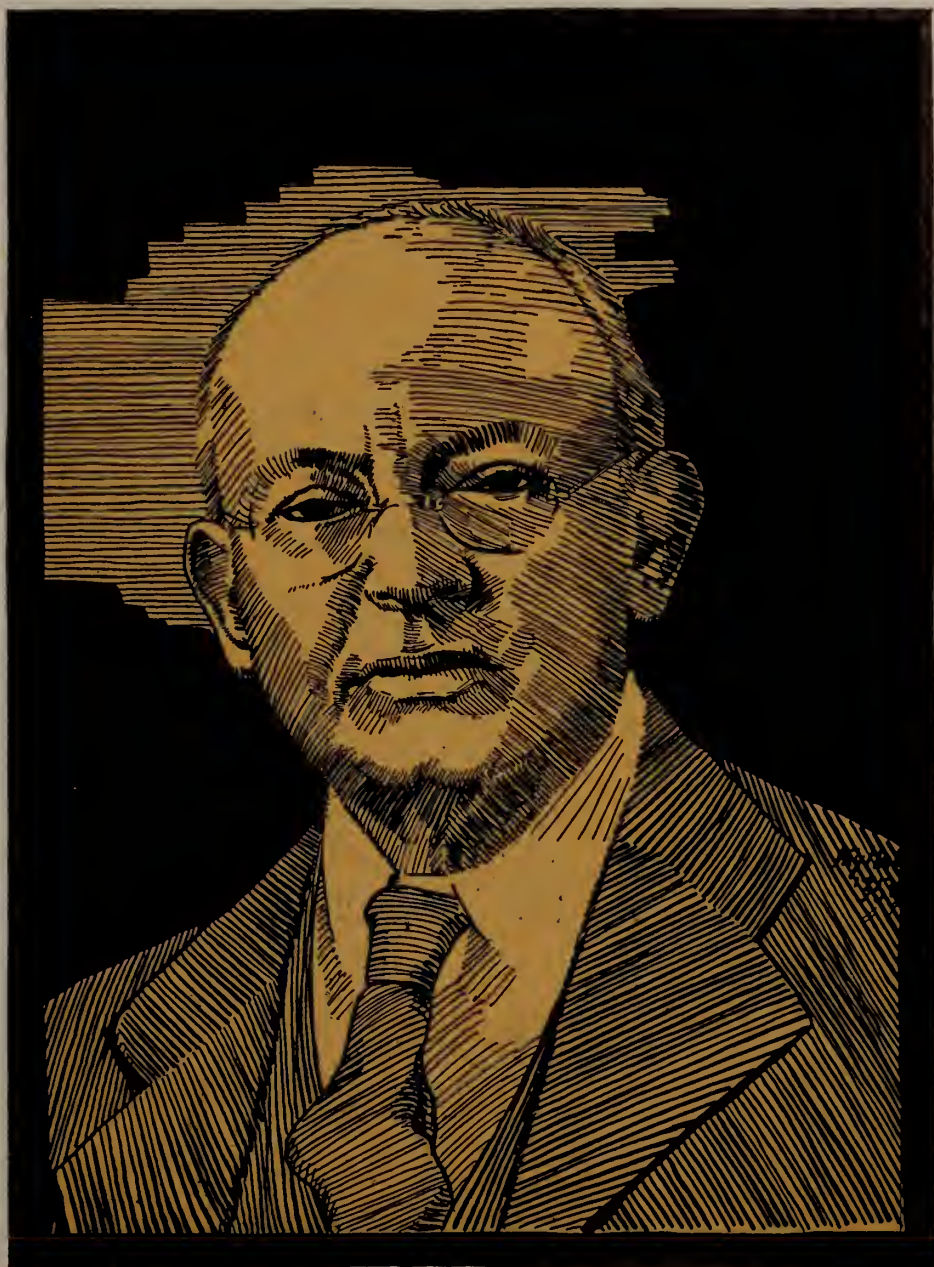

William Hemingway

In recognition of the credit that he reflects on this, his Alma Mater, as a scholar, a teacher, an adviser and, above all, as a true Christian gentleman. » »

HEAD COACH ED WALKER

RESUME OF THE SEASON

After having had in 1933 one of the very best years Ole Miss has ever enjoyed in her gridiron history, great things were expected of the team that gathered at the call of Coach Walker in the fall of 1934. Everything that was expected of the team did not materialize, in fact most of us failed to see his dream of a championship team consummated and the record of four victories and five defeats along with one tie does not look so well when written upon the record. In spite of the cold figures, Ole Miss had a good team in 1934, and although some of our defeats should have been victories and in spite of the fact that many times our worst playing was against teams from smaller schools, we often played superb games against the best teams of the South. We believe in the boys who compose our team, in the coaches who are guiding our destiny and above all the spirit that dominates, not only our team but the whole campus. We are looking forward to the Ole Miss team which we feel sure is in the offing.

The season started with a game against State Teachers College of Memphis, on our campus. Ole Miss easily rolled up a score of 44-0 against their S. I. A. A. opponents. The Teachers had a good team, but they were simply out-classed and could not withstand the mighty attack of the Ole Miss team. The game was played in the mud from beginning to finish, and by the end of the game there were no numbers visible, only moving togs covered with mud. Gunter, Rodgers, Bernard and Shoemaker scored touchdowns to place us far ahead of our fondest expectations for the game. Every man on the team played part of the game and played mighty well, too. It was in this game that Dave Bernard, the flashing fullback, rose from Sophomore oblivion to fame, scoring in the last minutes of the game three touchdowns for the Red and Blue.

After the victory over the Teachers the team traveled to Clarksdale to again win a brilliant victory over another Memphis aggregation. This time it was Southwestern to the tune of 19-0, before a capacity crowd. The Lynx did some mighty good playing but they had lost the rabbit foot which had jinxed Ole Miss for so many years. This victory more than any other in a number of years was taken as a good omen and from it the team and student body set out with great desires, high hopes, and perhaps overmeasured expectations. Southwestern was at last beaten, after so many years of playing over their heads at the expense of Ole Miss. We had at last won a victory over Southwestern that more fairly showed the strength of the two teams.

Next came the game against Tennessee, in which we suffered our first defeat, 27-0. Coach Walker did not get to make the trip because of "flu" and Dave Bernard did not get to play because of questions which had arisen concerning his eligibility. In spite of these handicaps along with the fact that Bill Richardson received an injury during the earlier part of the game which kept him out for practically the rest of the season, Ole Miss held Bob Neyland's Volunteers to a scoreless tie for the first half of the game. The team played brilliant ball the first half and did themselves just as well the second half. The injuries received during the first half kept practically all of the regular players on the bench most of the second half. If Ole Miss had had the reserves that Tennessee did, we feel sure that the second half would have been equally as brilliant as the first half.

C. O. SMALLING
Assistant Coach

Next came Howard and our real up-set of the season. During the second quarter of the game, Howard scored after a 26-yard run through the Ole Miss team. The extra point was converted and Ole Miss never did catch up. Gunter scored in exactly eight plays after the kickoff, but we failed at the extra point, and after the Howard touchdown and their extra point we never had the winning spirit. Howard played a great game and played "heads up" football the whole afternoon, somehow Ole Miss just could not get going after the Howard touchdown, although in the closing minutes of the game Shoemaker tore through the Bulldog line several times for substantial gains, but before the closing whistle Howard had taken the ball on downs. Ole Miss got possession of the ball once more, but a pass from Hutson to Rounsaville was intercepted and the game was over, 7-6, in favor of Howard.

It took lots of speeches from alumni, students, friends and coaches for Ole Miss to get the right spirit for the Homecoming game against Sewanee, after the defeat at the hands of Howard. The 19-0 victory on Homecoming restored in a great measure the faith that was needed by both team and the student body. At times during the game it had looked as though it might be a repetition of the preceding Saturday, but Ole Miss came through with a great victory against a scrapping team from the University of the South.

The Flood traveled all the way to New Orleans, carrying with it Blind Jim, the band, and many students and alumni on the special train, only to suffer a defeat at the hands of the Green Wave. In this game Ole Miss played the best defensive game of the season. At the end of the first half, Tulane was leading only by the narrow margin of a safety, which was scored after a bad pass from center. Time and again Ole Miss held the Green Wave when they were just a few yards from their goal. It was indeed a great defensive game, played against an outstanding team. Several times during the game Ole Miss really threatened to mar the record of one of the South-eastern's undefeated teams. The final score was 15-0 in favor of Tulane, but Ole Miss had played a real game against one of the finest teams of the country.

After the Tulane game, the team again went south, this time to Florida, and although they outplayed the Alligators in every way possible, they could only get a 13-13 tie. Florida scored her two touchdowns in the first period of the game, one of them coming by way of a 98-yard run through the whole Ole Miss squad. In the same period Rodgers and Gunter marched with the ball for a touchdown for Ole Miss, coming 60 yards after a previous threat had been repulsed. In the second period, Bartling tied the score with another touchdown. Several times Ole Miss threatened to turn the tie into victory, once marching as far as the 4 yard line, only to be held for downs. It was indeed a tough game to go as a tie, when the victory really should have been ours.

Next came Huey Long's Bengals. The game was played in Jackson with practically the entire student bodies from the two schools there, to say nothing of the Kingfish himself. The score was 14-0 in favor of Louisiana. The L. S. U. touchdowns came after Ole Miss had made several bad plays and if it had not been for these two blocked kicks, the tune of the game could have very easily been different. Hapes, playing at tackle for Ole Miss, played a great defensive game. In the fourth quarter Gunter dropped a pass, and with an open field ahead, this closed Ole Miss' chance to secure a marker, and the game ended in favor of his excellency, the Kingfish.

The game against Centenary was almost a repetition of the game against Florida. We outplayed the Gentlemen in every department of the game, but the breaks were against us and so, for the second time in so many years, the Gentlemen went off with a narrow victory. All afternoon Ole Miss knocked at touchdown's door, but after the first response the fair maiden didn't live there anymore. Ole Miss fumbled four times within scoring distance; somehow we had everything except the scoring drive. The game showed Ole Miss in one of her more aggressive moods, and the running of Rab Rodgers was the most brilliant ever on a Shreveport gridiron, according to Centenary fans. Rab handed in a most spectacular game, running, passing, and blocking in a very superb manner. The score was 13-6, Gunter making the touchdown for Ole Miss.

Then came the game against Mississippi State, and what a game it turned out to be! Playing against State in Jackson for the first time in many years, the Floodmen played one of the very best games of the season. The stadium was packed with friends and alumni from both schools, the cheering was great, the players were great, and the game even greater. For three quarters and up to the last few minutes of the last quarter, the two teams struggled up and down, back and forth, tirelessly playing for the break that everyone felt was coming. It came in the last five minutes of the game when Mississippi State capitalized on a position to kick for a field goal. The goal was good and it looked as though Mississippi State was at last going to make good the boast we have heard for so many years, but Ole Miss staged a comeback the like of which has seldom been witnessed by football fans anywhere. After State's goal, Bernard and Rodgers, in the closing minutes of the game, lugged the pigskin from the shadow of State's goal across the Ole Miss goal line and added a spectacular victory to Ole Miss football history. Not satisfied with the margin which they had attained, Hutson crashed the line for the extra point and the game ended 7-3 for Ole Miss.

Rounsaville

Although the season had not brought all the victories that the Ole Miss students and enthusiasts had wished, the brilliant ending was indeed a panacea for whatever fallen hopes might be harbored. Mississippi State played the best game of her season, and though we failed to play as we should, we won and showed Mississippi State that even when their team plays over its head and we do not play up to our quality, a State team is not equal to an Ole Miss squad.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

At the beginning of school in September, Coach C. M. Smith issued the first call for Freshman football players. In response to this call a very large group went on the field trying for positions on the squad. From the fine aggregation answering the call, the Freshman team will certainly send some players up to the varsity in the coming season.

Although permitted to play only two games under the new Conference ruling, the Freshmen made two stellar performances in their appearances on the field; and consistently afforded the varsity the competition needed in their daily practice.

The two games played by the Freshmen showed the capabilities which they possess. The first game was with the first year men of Southwestern. The "Bobcats" gave the Ole Miss Freshmen only a mere chance to show their capabilities, and the Little Flood came out of the game in fine style. On Thanksgiving Day, while the varsity was preparing for the game with Miss State in Jackson, the Freshmen were playing the yearlings of the same school. In this game the entire squad showed what they could do, and came out of a hard fought game with a 7-0 victory. It was the 60 yard run of Raymon Hapes through the entire opposing team which gave the Little Flood their victory.

Those trying for the first year squad were: Foose, Brownstein, Jackson, Bogard, Shaw, Marion, Kinard, Kincade, Bilbo, Aston, Cranford, Hart, Waits, Hapes, Harrington, Davis, Hain, Green, Mills, Overby, St. John, Carlson, Evans, Harbin, Johnson, Schmitt, Kelly, Rhyne, White, Caffey, and Savage.

BASKETBALL

The Ole Miss basketball team emerged from the 1935 season much more successfully than it has in many of the previous years. During the duration of the season, the Red and Blue basketeers played twelve conference games and four non-conference games; of the former, they were victorious in five; of the latter, they won two.

The initial series of the season was played against the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa. By the score of 38-26 and 42-27 the Tide quintet emerged the victors. The next encounter was a non-conference game with Millsaps, in which the Majors won by a 17-point margin. The team then departed on an extensive trip, playing a number of games in fine style. They first met the Mississippi Teachers at Hattiesburg, and the Teachers were taken in by the score of 40-38. Fresh from this victory, Ole Miss played Tulane in two games at New Orleans. The first night turned out successfully for the Mississippi boys, the game ending 43-30. The Tulane five avenged the first loss the following night with a 41-23 victory. While in this temporary slump, the Red and Blue team moved up to Baton Rouge, where they were defeated in two successive games by the L. S. U. Tigers, 47-32 and 47-33. From Baton Rouge The Flood traveled to Starksville to meet the traditional rivals, Mississippi State, who gained one-sided and decisive victories in the two games played on their campus by scores of 60-31 and 55-37. The team then came back to the campus for two games with non-conference foe, Southwestern. Ole Miss suffered a 50-43 defeat in the first contest, and emerged as victors in the last game of the series, 42-13. Whatever may have been the outcome of previous games, the University quintet redeemed themselves and closed the season with two of the most thrilling games ever witnessed in the Ole Miss gym. In return for the trouncing handed them at Starksville, Coach Walker's boys showed complete mastery of the ball and defeated Mississippi State by the narrow margins of 35-33 and 40-38.

It is indeed fitting that due credit be given to those men who loyally performed on the Ole Miss basketball team through the season.

To Coach Ed Walker goes the credit for the commendable showing made. "Buster" Poole, who played at center, deserves special recognition for his ability to hold down the tip-off position. Even though he was playing his first year on the team, Buster did some creditable work, and played well in every game. "Speedy" Williams, a regular forward, showed his prowess as a speed merchant and as one of the leading scorers of the season. Chester Curtis lived up to the reputation he had set two years previous in his brilliant playing, closing his athletic career in a flash of brilliance. "Rab" Rodgers, who is the recent recipient of the Norris trophy, played in every game of the season with the same abilities which have gained for him the recognition of being the outstanding athlete at the University of Mississippi. Tom Leyden, a new comer on the varsity, distinguished himself for his dexterous and sleight-of-hand manipulation of the ball. Marcus Beddingfield, another outstanding sophomore, held down one of the forward positions, gaining recognition for his shooting ability. Other men who saw action during the season were Thames, Baumstein, Stephens, and Bernard.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The basketball season was another of Coach Tad Smith's first-year outfits to go through an undefeated season, finishing their four-game schedule without a loss. In each of the games played by this squad new potentialities developed, and by the end of the season some of the men showed that they were going to give some of the varsity players a hard job landing their positions for another year.

Coach Smith's quintet started the season off in a tilt with the cadets of Tupelo Military Institute. In this, as in every other game, the freshmen showed their superb ability in handling the ball and pass work. The freshmen won this game by a score of 41 to 19. The team next engaged the fast Senatobia outfit, and won a decisive victory over them. The score: Freshmen, 38; Senatobia, 24. Following this game the freshmen engaged the C. C. C. camp of Abbeville. The shrubbery boys were defeated by a score of 35 to 15. The squad then played the T. M. I. cadets again, this time defeating them by a larger score than in the first encounter.

During the season there were about fifteen men qualifying for the team, and this enabled Coach Smith to put a strong lineup on the floor in every game. Those turning in outstanding performances during the season were: Kincad, Kinnard, Graham, Hart, Bilbo, Carlson, Selby, and Foose. The performance of the first year cagemen was one of the most encouraging features of the freshmen athletic program, and their promotion from the freshman ranks next year will enable Ole Miss to have a vastly improved varsity squad during the 1935-36 season.

TRACK RESUME

Although facing an unusually hard schedule, with the additional handicap of the loss of several top-notch performers and a change in coaches, the Ole Miss trackmen turned in the most outstanding record that the school has ever had, losing only to Louisiana State University, the national champions of the summer before.

Facing three opponents, Southwestern of Memphis, Louisiana State University, and Alabama, the Red and Blue cinder artists turned in an imposing victory over the Lynx, two well-earned wins over the Tide, and had the record blotted only by the great aggregation at Baton Rouge. Mississippi State was the other school on the schedule, but they withdrew from the competition.

Southwestern, the first opponent, proved to be a true "warm up" opposition, furnishing little in the way of competition. The red-shirters from Memphis tied Reeves and White in the pole vault and broad jump and also turned in victories in two other events to garner most of their points. The Lynx also won the only hotly contested race of the afternoon, this was the relay which they won only by inches. Jess Flowers was high point man of the meet with a total of ten points. Curtis, Bell, Smith, and Gill were others who turned in winning performances to gather points for the Red and Blue.

Facing the Louisiana squad the following Saturday, a squad that held top rating among collegiate track circles in the nation and had proved their fitness by trouncing the Indiana Hoosiers a short time before, the Mississippians naturally held little hope of victory. The squad was badly handicapped by the illness of several of the best performers; however, the Red and Blue came through with a fine performance and on several occasions came near upsetting the highly touted Louisiana stars. Bell, White, and Gill were among the individual Mississippians who came near marring the L. S. U. record. Curtis was ill and naturally failed to turn in his best performance.

The meet with L. S. U. evidently served to whet the appetite of The Flood for revenge, and so the next Saturday Alabama fell by the score of 63-54. For a part of the afternoon the honors were just about equally divided, but The Flood swept several events and thus established the lead. Curtis emerged the winner in the feature race of the day, taking the 880 by inches and setting a new school record of 1:58.5 in the event. White and Gill easily took the weight events, with Dovith and Ames doing the same thing in the century dash. The climax of the day was the relay, won by Ole Miss in the record time of 3:28. Curtis-Shepard-Smith-Bell were the four men who broke the former school record in this event.

With Mississippi State breaking her scheduled meet with the University, another engagement was arranged with Alabama. This final meet was very near graduation. The Mississippians started out badly, facing a deficit of twenty points when time for the track events rolled around. However, due to the record-breaking performance turned in by Bell, and the fine point winning efforts of Berryhill and Shoemaker in the hurdles, and Gill in the javelin, along with the aid of the other cindermen, the score when the last relay was reached was Alabama, 58, and Ole Miss, 54. Facing several new men of the Capstone relay quartet the Red and Blue four came through in victorious style, winning the race and in a great way setting another school record. Ole Miss won the meet by the margin of one point.

In almost every way, the season could be counted as a very successful one. From the standpoint of competition faced, and the victories won, it was the best that the school has ever experienced. Records that had stood the test for many years went by the boards, while several competitors erased marks that they themselves had set the year before. The team was recognized as being second only to the Bengals of Louisiana in the Southeastern Conference, and in addition many of the individual performers set time for their respective events that were equalled by very few men in the Association.

In all a total of seven school records were smashed. Bell took the old mark in the 440 down three notches to 50.1 time. Curtis lowered his own 880 record to 1:58.5. In both of the hurdle events the time was lowered, Berryhill taking .1 of a second off of Shoemaker's 15. mark, in the 120 low hurdles to make it a 24 flat. Gill erased his old distance in the javelin 3 feet to set the new length of 183.3. White added quite a bit of length to his former mark in the discus to stretch it to 143 feet.

TENNIS RESUME

The 1934 tennis season was a big one for the Ole Miss net aces, in fact, the team has been very deservedly called one of the very best in the history of the school. Led by Captain Lee Hines and Blue aces. So one-sided was the match that Millsaps gathered only 11 games in the seven matches. The Ole Miss team was "hot" that day. Hines defeated Cross 6-0, 6-3; Graeber toppled Jones 6-1, ably assisted by Graeber, Berger, Klyce, and Prospere, the team started off with a bang against Mississippi State in the Ole Miss gym, rain having forced the match indoors. In this match Hines won from Kronimus with little difficulty, 6-2, 6-1, Graeber likewise disposed of McCormick 6-1, 6-1, and Berger outstaidied Weathersby to the count of 6-4, 6-2. Prospere also won his match by the margin of 6-4, 6-3. The outcome of the match having been decided, the Ole Miss boys "let down" and lost the remaining matches.

Millsaps was the next victim to fall before the terrific onslaught of the Red and 6-0; Klyce won from Smith 6-1, 6-1, and thus finished a great day in tennis history for Ole Miss.

The team then left on a two-day trip, stopping first at Starksville, where they again turned back Mississippi State, Hines, Graeber, and Berger winning their respective matches for Ole Miss from McCormick, Kronimus, and Wyatt. Prospere and Klyce dropped close matches to Wyatt and Cratin. Hines and Graeber clinched the match with a 6-2, 6-1 defeat of Kronimus and Wyatt. Klyce and Prospere dropped close ones to Cratin and McCormick of State. It may be added that in both matches the Mississippi State team reversed its line-up in order to avoid a seven to nothing trouncing.

The next day the team journeyed to Alabama where they dropped a heart-breaker to the Crimson Tide 4-2. The Ole Miss boys came within a point of victory on several occasions in the match, Alabama's day in the tennis matches.

On the return match against Millsaps Ole Miss was without the services of Captain Lee Hines. Rain interrupted the match to add to the discomfort of the situation. Graeber defeated Jones 6-1, 10-8. Berger trounced Cross 6-2, 6-1. Klyce won from Smith 6-1, 6-2. The Ole Miss boys but could not quite make it. Lee Hines, playing Andrews, Southern ranking star, and Alabama's best, ran Andrews "ragged," displaying beautiful form to win 2-6, 7-5, 6-0. Graeber, with his net game going in an excellent fashion, seemed headed for victory when Simpson rallied to win 6-4, 2-6, 12-10 for Alabama. Berger and Glant were engaged for long time in a base line battle; three times Berger was at the match point, but failed to make the last point, and so another went to Alabama 4-6, 8-6, 7-5. Prospere dropped a 6-0, 6-1 affair to Hamilton, and Klyce lost a close match to Mitchell and it was were leading in the other matches when the rain halted the playing.

Next season the Ole Miss team will miss Lee Hines' services. The opposing teams were loud in their praises of this lad. He possessed a sound all-round game with beautiful ground strokes. In addition to his excellent playing qualities his ability as a leader was unequalled. Graeber, Berger, Klyce, and Prospere will be back for next season, thus assuring a good and well-rounded team. In addition to the veterans, Noblin, a first-year man, will be playing and Ole Miss bids fair to have a great team for the season of 1935.

BOXING TEAM

The Ole Miss boxing team experienced one of its most successful seasons in recent years under the capable direction of Coach Jess Alderman. From the beginning more interest was manifest in this sport than in any other indoor activity. To Coach Alderman goes the credit of bringing this sport into the spotlight on this campus.

During the season the boxing team met four opponents, and fought two battles with the traditional rivals, Miss State. The season opened here in an engagement with Alabama. The Tide boxers could not match the skill and training of the Ole Miss boxers, and Ole Miss won this match 7-1. Next the team journeyed to Tulane, and there they lost 5-3. The team then came back home and met Miss State the following week. This was perhaps one of the most exciting boxing matches ever witnessed on the campus. When the final bell rang Ole Miss and State had won an equal number of the fights. The team then went to Starksville and met the State boys there again; this time they lost the match 5-3. After a rest the team went to L. S. U. and there met some of the best boxers in the conference. L. S. U. won his match by a margin of 6-2.

The boxing team this season was composed of: Rossetti, bantamweight; Ballard, featherweight; Smith and Holder, lightweights; Lackey, welterweight; West, junior-middleweight; Levine (Capt.), senior-middleweight; Dickens and Curley, light-heavyweights; and Hapes, heavyweight.

THE NORRIS TROPHY

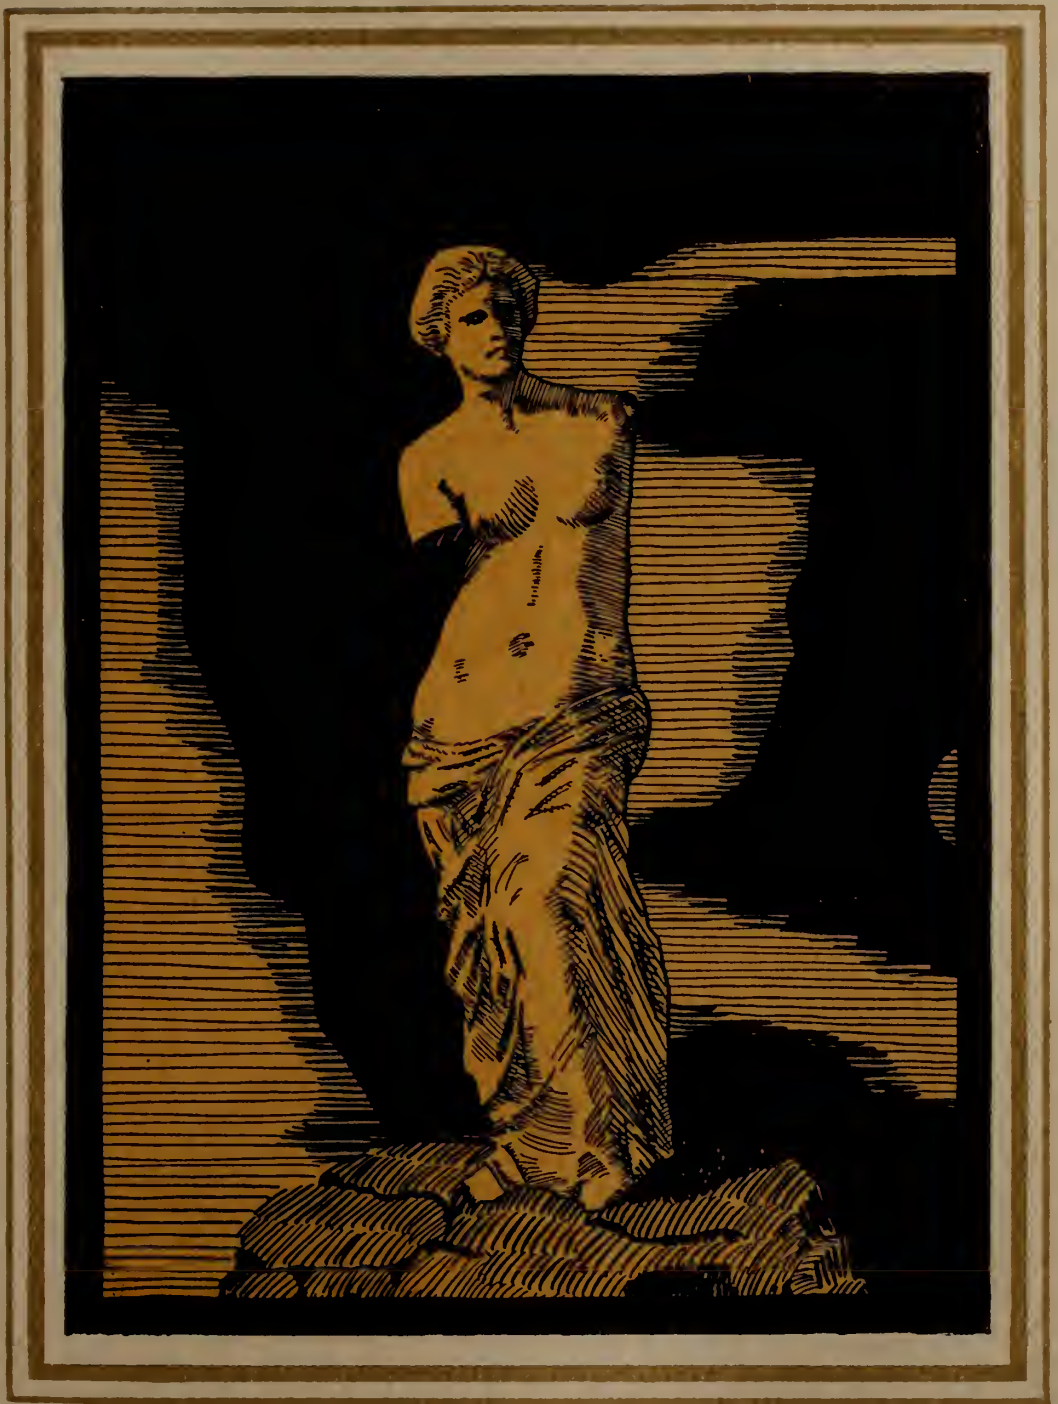

RODGERS

The Norris Trophy is presented each year to the most outstanding athlete in the University of Mississippi by the Norris Candy Company, of Atlanta, Georgia. This award has been made possible through the efforts of the Gathright-Reed Drug Company, agents for the Norris Candy Company at Oxford.

Robert D. Rodgers, of Tupelo, Mississippi, has been selected by a vote of the student body as the winner of the trophy this year. Although a junior, Rab has done meritorious work in three branches of athletics and justly deserved the award. He was one of the most outstanding players on the football team, and was selected by his teammates as being the best offensive player for the year. On the basketball court, Rab has been one of the best players, holding down the position of forward. He played catcher on the baseball team, and did well both in fielding and batting.

This award is indeed one of the highest bestowed by the student body, and they have done well in selecting Rab as the winner.

THINGS YOU WOULD NOT KNOW IF I DID NOT TELL YOU

Perchance in our more reflective moods some of us have chanced to muse upon the possibilities of the origin of the appellation "Ole Miss," which our Alma Mater so proudly bears. Mrs. J. F. Cappleman suggested the name for the first annual published on our campus. The annual was published in 1897 and had for its first editor Judge Garland Lyell and for its first business manager Judge V. A. Griffith. This publication was put out by the nine fraternities and two sororities then on the campus.

"Ole Miss" is to typify the mellow and reverential respect that the slaves held for their "Ole Marster's" wife, commonly called "Ole Miss." These terms were slave adaptations of "Ole Master" and "Old Mistress" to distinguish them from the sons and daughters of the family, who were called "Young Marster" and "Young Miss." Being in the heart of Dixie, surrounded by the many traditions of the Old South, hallowed by the blood of the Confederacy, and pregnant with the memories of all that is dear to Southern history, no name could be more in keeping with the University of Mississippi.

Dean A. L. Bondurant has the longest record of the professors, having been connected with the University for the past 46 years. Dr. Bondurant coached the first football team at the University in 1893. At this time he suggested a union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Blue of Yale as the colors for the football team, and since '93 these have been the colors.

Jim Ivy, alias Blind Jim, Dean of the Freshman Class, has been on the campus for 36 years. Starting as a mere peanut vender, Jim has now become a travelling merchant.

The first woman to enter the University of Mississippi after the Board of Trustees sanctioned the "co-ed movement" was Miss Sallie V. Hill, later Mrs. R. W. Jones. Miss Hill entered the University in 1882, and graduated with highest honors in her class.

The football team received its nickname, "The Flood," in a contest conducted by the Mississippian several years ago. The Mississippian sent letters over the country soliciting suggestions, and from these suggestions a committee elected the name of "The Flood."

Mr. J. J. Quarles received the first diploma awarded by the University of Mississippi. Mr. Quarles graduated in the class of 1851, and there were 15 in this class. This diploma was lost for 60 years, later found, and is now preserved in the Chancellor's office.

Alma Mater

'Way down south in Mississippi, there's a spot that ever calls,
Where among the hills enfolded stand old Alma Mater's halls.
Where the trees lift high their branches to the whispering Southern breeze,
There Ole Miss is calling, calling to our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee, all our loyalty is thine.
And we hail thee, Alma Mater, may thy light forever
shine;
May it brighter grow and brighter, and with deep affection true,
Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee, dear old
Red and Blue.

May thy fame throughout the nation, thru thy sons and daughters grow;
May thy name forever waken in our hearts a tender glow;
May thy counsel and thy spirit ever keep us one in this,
That our own shall be thine honor now and ever, dear
Ole Miss!

LITTLE ALLEY CROWNS ROYALTY

Gib Crowd Jams Gym to See Annual Event

Amid all the pomp and glory which would accompany the crowning of one of the royal heads of European thrones, last night in the gym Miss Ole Miss and the King of Madi Gras ruled supreme. The crowd came pouring in at about two pints and continued to do the same the remainder of the evening, some passing out before the main event of the evening. Berpie Holmes and his band led in the musicals and were followed by the remainder of the congregation.

At exactly 10 o'clock the band started playing the Battle Him of the Republic and the court began staggering in. First came the dainty little Ann Hardy, who was dressed in a mere egg shell model, and then the ceremony got under the weather. Accompanying her was the man who thought he was the king of the evening, N. C. House. Next came the illustrious MISS frances holmes. MISS holmes was gowned in a slim green pea number thrown about her in a most fastidious manner. She was accompanied by Winston the third.

Then happened what was perhaps the most unusual event of the evening. Ole Warhorse Bell came stumbling up the aisle with Malcolm Y Y Guess at his side. It was said by some of the bystanders that Y Y explained the matter, saying he had gotten his horses mixed up, and was leading this one to the wrong stall.

Following MISS holmes came the alluring Jane Saunders. And did she look good? (See Shine Hopkins.) She was dressed in one of the latest sport numbers of bathing suits, and the crowd went wild. After having to support her escort practically all the way to the throne

LAUNDRY AND CAFE GIVE NEW SERVICE

The University Cafeteria, under the management of "Wash Tubbs" Seay, second Corporal to Mike Conner's "Yess Man," Colonel Mussolilee Gainey, is having a very delightful year. A good time is had by all who do not eat there. It has been going forward with a marked degree of failure.

A considerable uproar was caused when the Exalted Management found out that one of the cashiers had been charging only 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ c for a glass of milk. Speed and Service, the motto, has been steadfastly adhered to—it takes one only 55 minutes after getting in line to get to a cashier and 15 minutes to get away. One never has to wait more than 10 minutes to get a table cleared. The whole Cafeteria is shrouded in a deathlike silence which prevails at all times when the students are eating. The silence reminds one of a cross between a boiler factory and a riveting machine.

The prices have been cut to the place where the competition of the Peabody and Chisca can be very adequately met. One can go to Memphis and eat at these places, add the price of his expenses to

THE "MISSISSIPPIAN"

"Ex Nihilo Nihil Fit"—from nothing nothing is made. This thing, called the "Official Publication of the University of Mississippi Student Body," is "Immedicable Vunius"—an incurable wound. It has to be taken "Cum Grano Salis"—with a grain of salt, each week, with some allowance, yes, the feeble-minded editorial staff. This staff fills its columns with anything, so long as the columns get filled, done "Ad Captandum"—for the sake of pleasing.

The EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, campus big shot, is on the other hand "Anguis in Herba"—a snake in the grass. His editorials, conceived by his infant mind, expressed by his feeble brain, and executed under the influence of delirium tremens, pollute the enlightening environment of the University like one among the strong does those ready to do battle, and serve as "Brutum Fulmen"—an ineffectual display of force. "Damnant Quod non Intel-ligunt"—they condemn what they do not understand.

The FEATURE EDITOR, that infernal, infinitesimal, mendacious, self-satisfying runt of prolific humanity, handshaker, and back-slapper of political fame, bears no malice toward anyone, limits his spineless ability to jellyfish proportions. Were it not for his already too prominent display of mental cerebrage his illustrious, venerable, and infamous name would long ere this have been numbered among the galaxy of stars. Now students, watch this small, greasy, snooping, nose-prying individual take a smack at this.

As a whole, this prognostic weekly epistle, foretelling the dawn of something worth while after this year, maybe, is dissipated in make-up; "Flux de Paroles"—a flow of words; meaningless and absolutely rotten, deserving only the condemnation of the elite and the approval of the sacriligious.

NOTES

Successful bridge is a triumph of mind over chatter.

Tom calls his girl "Brown Sugar," sweet but unrefined.

Some men grow under responsibilities, others only swell.

He who laughs last seldom gets the point anyway.

It takes jacks or better to open a Pullman window.

The stork is the bird with the big bill.

Did you know a dog perspires through his pants?

A liar is one who has no partition between his imagination and his information.

Flattery is soft-soap, soft-soap is 90% lye.

He who laughs, lasts.

CORRECTIONS

With profound and numerous gestures of regret we admit the falsity of the report that the well-known "Jiggs" Neblett was carried to his room and poured into bed after having been found in a gutter in a drunken condition. This report was untrue. "Jiggs" was able to get to bed without help, after spraying the terra firma around his window.

This paper wishes to take this opportunity to correct the statement made that Chancellor Hume lost $6.98 in a crap game at the faculty meeting the other night. It was later understood that the money handed over was a part of his split, and that he had taken too much.

NOTICE: Though mistakes might not have been corrected, the paper wishes to take this opportunity to apologize to those with reference to whom mistakes have been made. Papers have always made mistakes, like other human agencies, and history always repeats itself. (Has the Mississippian ever gotten anything right!) However, there are several causes for mistakes: Natural animosity people have for those prying into their affairs; the innate secrecy which governs the lives of many men and women on this campus; and the evident reluctance with which they admit the truth the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

FACULTY WINS IN FINAL EVENT OF
INTER-MURAL SERIES*Defeat Varsity in a Surprisingly Strong Finish*

Kimbrough kicked off to Curtis, who dribbled through the whole Faculty team, but was stopped by Calvin Brown's left jab to the back of the court. Hutson singled to his own forty-five yard line, but was out when Jockey Rainwater was caught jumping the gun. On the next play Hapes sunk a clean basket from the bleachers, but he had overlooked the big casino and was disqualified for underweight. Wolfe made a carom off the red, and moved the King's castle seven; but because he failed to declare, he sliced into the rough and had to set 'em up in the other alley. Mildren paid 13c for every $3.00 straight ticket. His batting average was 10 minutes, 7 3-5 seconds. Longest recovered and bid two spades as the period ended.

A double play, Hull to Swan, fell short. Deuces were wild, so were the stands. Another pass, Hemingway to Bell, would have tied the score had Kennon been caught renegeing. Foul on "Baby" Rounsaville. It was his fifth personal, and the score stood two strikes and three balls. He dropped back to his own three-yard line and with a clean left to the pooch caught Walker in the stretch, got the scissors, recovered, and holed out in the six for a birdie. The stands were already wild. On the next play "Vap" Adams bet on Farquhar to win. He was taking the hurdles with ease, but Jockey Sackett was forced to use the whip in order to get a grand slam. He was penalized for a double-dribble, but did not change from the breast stroke which he had been using all the rubber. It was the end of the third race.

By a series of forehand drives and lefts to the body Farley was able to gain two inches through the varsity's five man defense. Horace

WALKER IN ACTION

Brown went in for Calvin Brown at the net position. Carruth ran back to take a fly with his bare hand, but was forced to punt. He credited himself with three in the swan dive, but should have had high, low, jack, and the game. Walker won by a nose. It was Gladden's bid and the fans carried him from the field. Bishop fouled Gunter when he tried to crowd him to the rail. He had the flash two up and three to play as the whistle blew.

Bondurant opened with a beautiful three-rail in the corner, it was the most outstanding service of the series, being from his own 45-yard line. The stands "boo-ed" him for his conduct. Fox hit a line drive to the goal keeper. He was leading by two lengths. Thames broke up his dribble, but it took him three sets to get out of the rough. He held three honors and the deuce of spades. Just as the barrier was sprung, Rodgers fumbled, but managed to worm his way through the rough to score one of the handiest grand slams since the days of Dempsey. He was well ridden by Jockey Torrey. Green singled to discard. Hammond was sent to the showers with a bad head. The stands are still wild as the set came to a close.

Sydner throws a curve, but is intercepted by Guess who lays a full house on the board, and cleans the track. In a great line drive around the last post Gondolf shot a low one to the catcher, but he was put out on account of running with the ball. Smalling led with the king of clubs, but "Speedy" Williams came in walking ahead of the whole field. The Faculty sends in a substitute. It is Shaw, who does some mighty nice dealing, but is called out for running out of bounds. The stands are still wild, as there is only one more second to play. As the bell is ringing Hume is caught behind the 8 ball.

Final score: Faculty, 33; varsity, 76 1/4.

BROWN TO JOIN
BARNUM & BAILEY*Well-Known Student to Hit Sawdust Ring*Berry Brown Receives Offer to Take Position in Freak
Side-Show of Circus

One of our most prominent students has recently received an offer from Mr. Barnum of the Barnum and Bailey Circus to be in the great sideshow of that organization. He is to occupy a spacious cage, ornamented with beautifully colored glass bearing the title, "The Only Living Man Who Can Talk Indefinitely Without Saying Anything." His salary is not to exceed one dollar a week, since his upkeep will be enormous because of the great amount of food needed to supply this human machine. His only activity will be to sit still and look as important as he thinks he is, which in itself is an easy task, while he rambles on. The hardest thing he will have to do is to keep his mouth shut and try not to render himself obnoxious when the performance is not going on, for the management fears that this might lead to the other performers resigning their positions. It is generally known that Berry has the awful habit of talking when talking is not desired, and it is thought this will be the hardest thing for him to do. However, this job will not

HILL HALL DANCE ENDS IN BRAWL

"Say, Teat, did you hear about the dance last Saturday night?"

"No, Mary, what about it?"

"It was simply stiffling! During the second no-break, while the lights were low and everything was quiet, Bully Nance climbed up to the roof and began working the spotlight. He shined it up in the northwest corner of the east end where David Brewer was doing the Delta hand-in-the-air shake-down with Tante Scruggs. David became raging mad and hurled a pint which he had in his back pocket at Bully, and missing him the bottle hit the nearby fuse box, and threw the whole place into darkness. Then things began to happen so fast one could hardly keep up with them. Jimmie Armstrong looked very slouchy for the first time; Billy McGee smiled; Lyle Bates beat Tom out of a dime; Portwood got stuck with Harrison; Miss Heffley rushed out into the crowd and was immediately overcome and repulsed; Berry Brown stopped talking for a few minutes; The Mississippians seemed good; student did not worry about the results of the wild oats they were sowing; "Bear" Demarche, feeling his importance, climbed through a keyhole, and has not been heard from since. About this time, two hours later, the lights came back on, and on the floor there were some hundred men who could not stand the fray; chairs were broken and windows knocked out; and in general the place was in an utter state of confusion. The hospitals filled immediately, and none of the Country Club boys have been heard from since.

"Damit! Mary, I would miss the most exciting thing of the year."

"Yes, Teat, you would."

(he having faded out on account of the great amount of excitement) she made it up to the region of the throne. Upon arriving at this point Shine was revived, mounted old Traveler, and made a mad dash to the throne.

The attention of the crowd was directed from the floor to one of the dark corners of the floor where a great amount of noise was coming from. There much to the surprise of the students, to say nothing of the faculty, some tall cutting-up and stomping was taking place. Upon investigation it turned out to be Peter Rabbit Milden tearing through the very difficult movements of the new Continental. He had as his partner dean Heffley. Critics say that they were headed places when last seen disappearing through the crowd.

Following in the wake of the Saunders-Hopkins march came Frances Witty. She had as her man, for the evening, Kirby Harrell. She was fairly tripping up the aisle when she slipped on something Galssey. Harrell, however, made a quick recovery, and then they proceeded to the throne. (Body by Witty.)

All began to hold their breath (for the usual reason) as their royal highnesses began to enter the place. Miss Janie Neil had been selected to fill the shoes of Miss Ole Miss, and this she had quite a time doing; accompanying her was the well-known lightweight Clarence Hapes. After having to push several of the bystanders out of the path they made it up to their places. Little Alley there intervened and proceeded with the crowning. He gracefully walked up the rostrum and after giving one of his usual boring speeches, laid the baseball bat, specially made for the purpose of crowning, over the heads of the royalty. The crowd was again in an uproar as they started the march around the floor. After dancing 'till dawn the entire outfit was invited to the Chancellory to have the morning pick-up.

LAUNDRY AND CAFE

Memphis and the cost of his meal, and the whole amount will be the price of the meal in the Cafeteria would have amounted to. We wish to highly commend the Cafeteria and its management and hired help in cooperating with the students and securing their opinions before making any changes in the prices charged for the food. Be it said to their everlasting credit that it took two freshmen only fifteen minutes by the use of a knife as a coal chisel and a salt shaker as a hammer to divide one of the very tender pieces of meat which are so frequently served.

For some unknown reason the University Laundry sent out the laundry of a student this week in which there was absolutely no mistake in the clothing returned. We must admit that we are very sorry indeed to see our very efficient laundry break its time old custom and send out one laundry in which every pair of socks matched, and every shirt returned was the one sent out. Be it said in favor of the Laundry, though, that they did succeed in removing from the clothing returned all the buttons that were there when the clothing was sent out.

The student who was the recipient of such extraordinary service has been taken to the hospital in a coma. He has been unconscious ever since he ascertained that he did not have to figure out just who had the sock that matched the one sent him, or the pair of shorts returned to him. We sincerely hope that the student will soon recover from the severe shock, and we feel sure that the Laundry will not render such ungently service again.

be so hard, since Mr. Barnum has consented to permit Berry to continue to be correspondent for various newspapers. It was agreed, of course, that he was to put nothing in his articles concerning himself and his ability, as he is often known to do. You may doubtless wonder why the circus management consented to this. Well, through their long dealings with such freaks of nature as this one they realize that they will have to have some diversions and pets in order that they will not become so bored with themselves that they cannot put up with life any more. Berry will have a chance to pick up quite a bit of side money while working with the show. The keeper of the monkeys of the circus has hired Berry to entertain them with his antics, and it is thought that he might even make friends with the heretofore untamed hahhoon, since he looks so much like it.

The student body of Ole Miss through this paper, wishes to extend their hearty congratulations to Mr. Brown for the noble and uplifting contribution which he is making by accepting the kind offer of Mr. Barnum. It is the sincere hope of every one that this noble person will make a success of this adventure, and spend the remainder of his days entertaining those having never heard him.
